

Bearded Vulture in Haut-Dauphiné 2019

Andorre, 15-17/11/2019

Cathy Ribot & Christian Couloumy

Flash back... 32 years ago, Nina (released in Austria 1987)

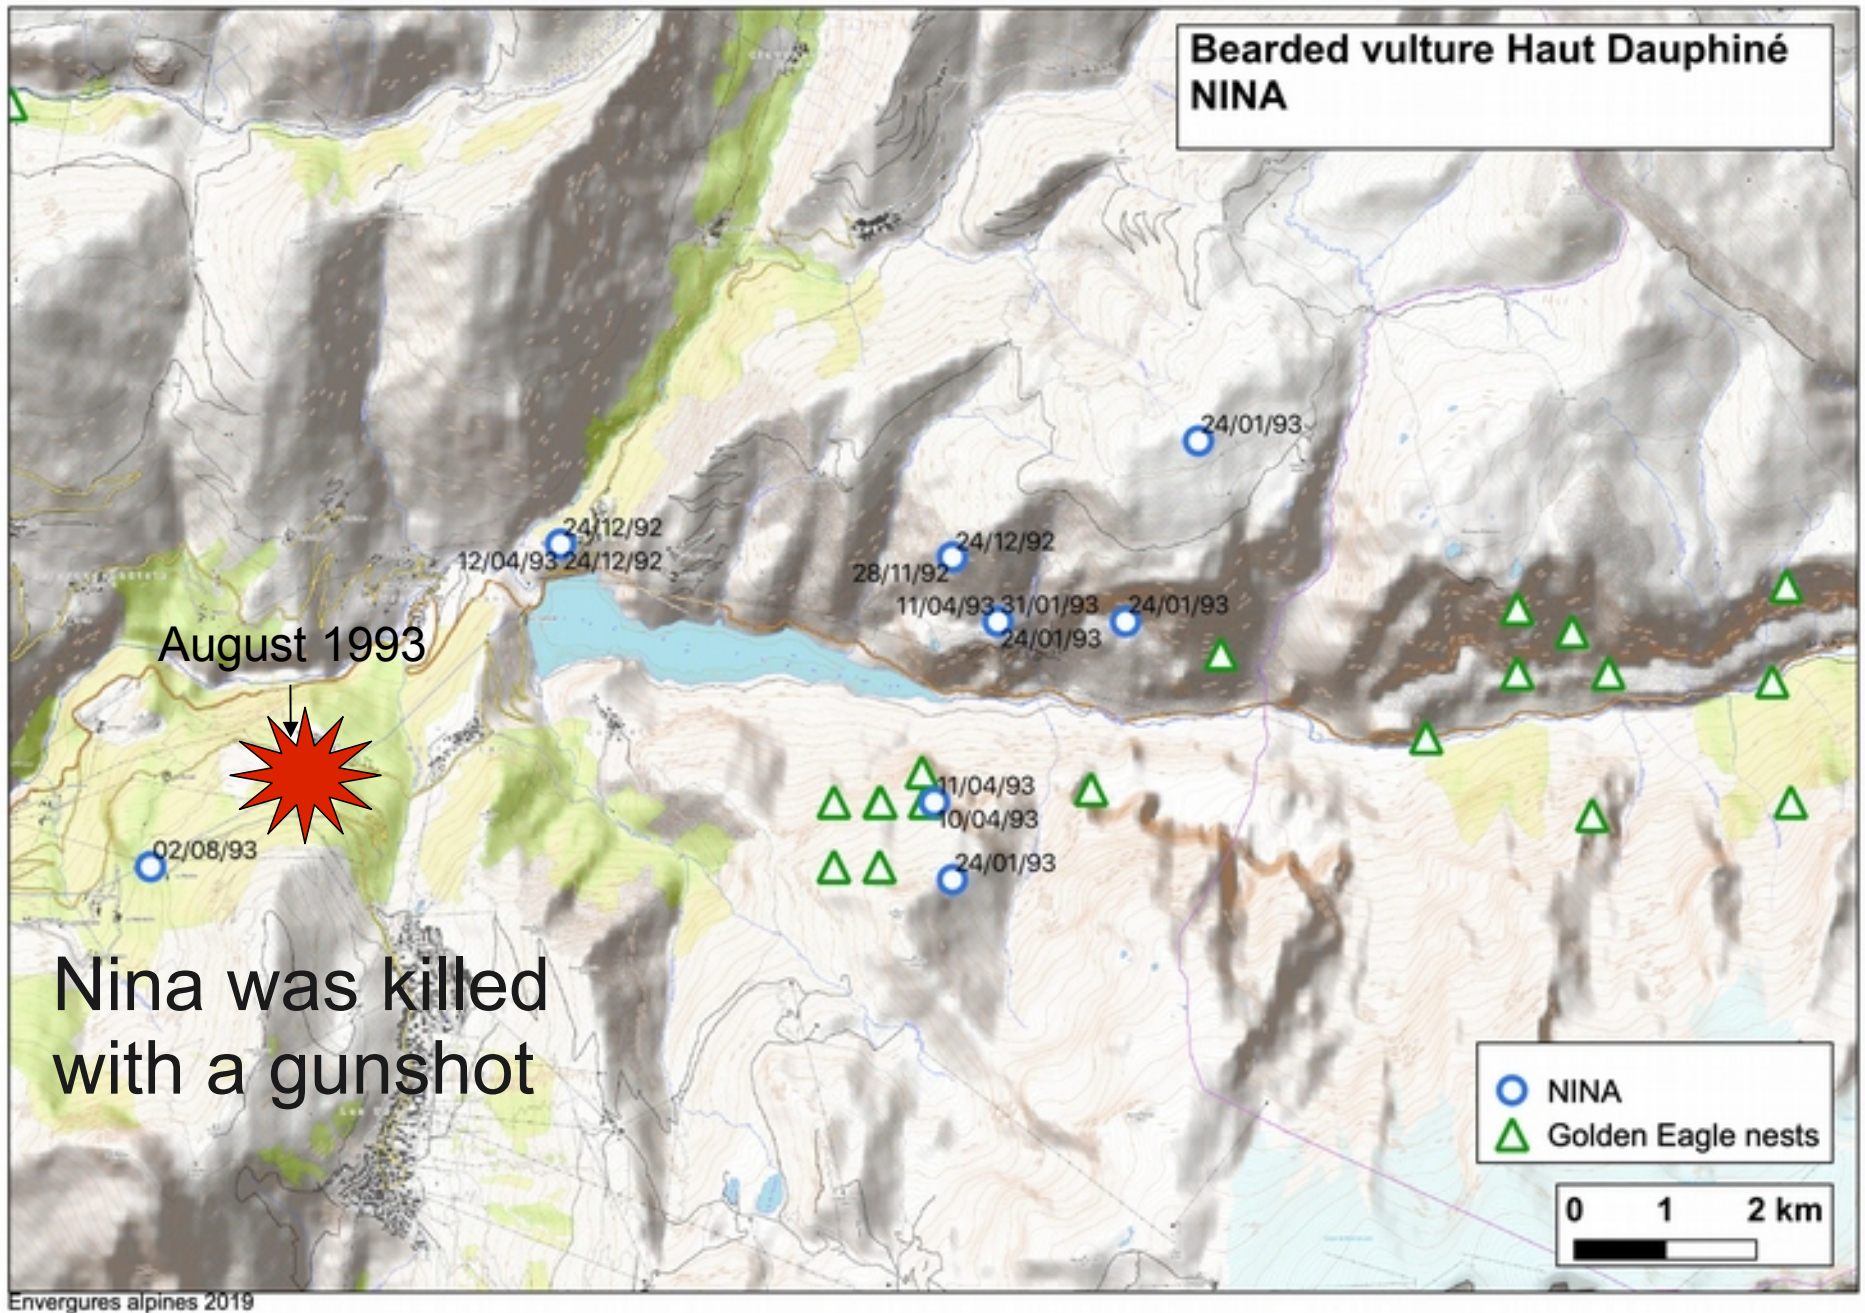

Envergures alpines 2019

Sometimes, it lands on eagle's nest, and we began to hope...

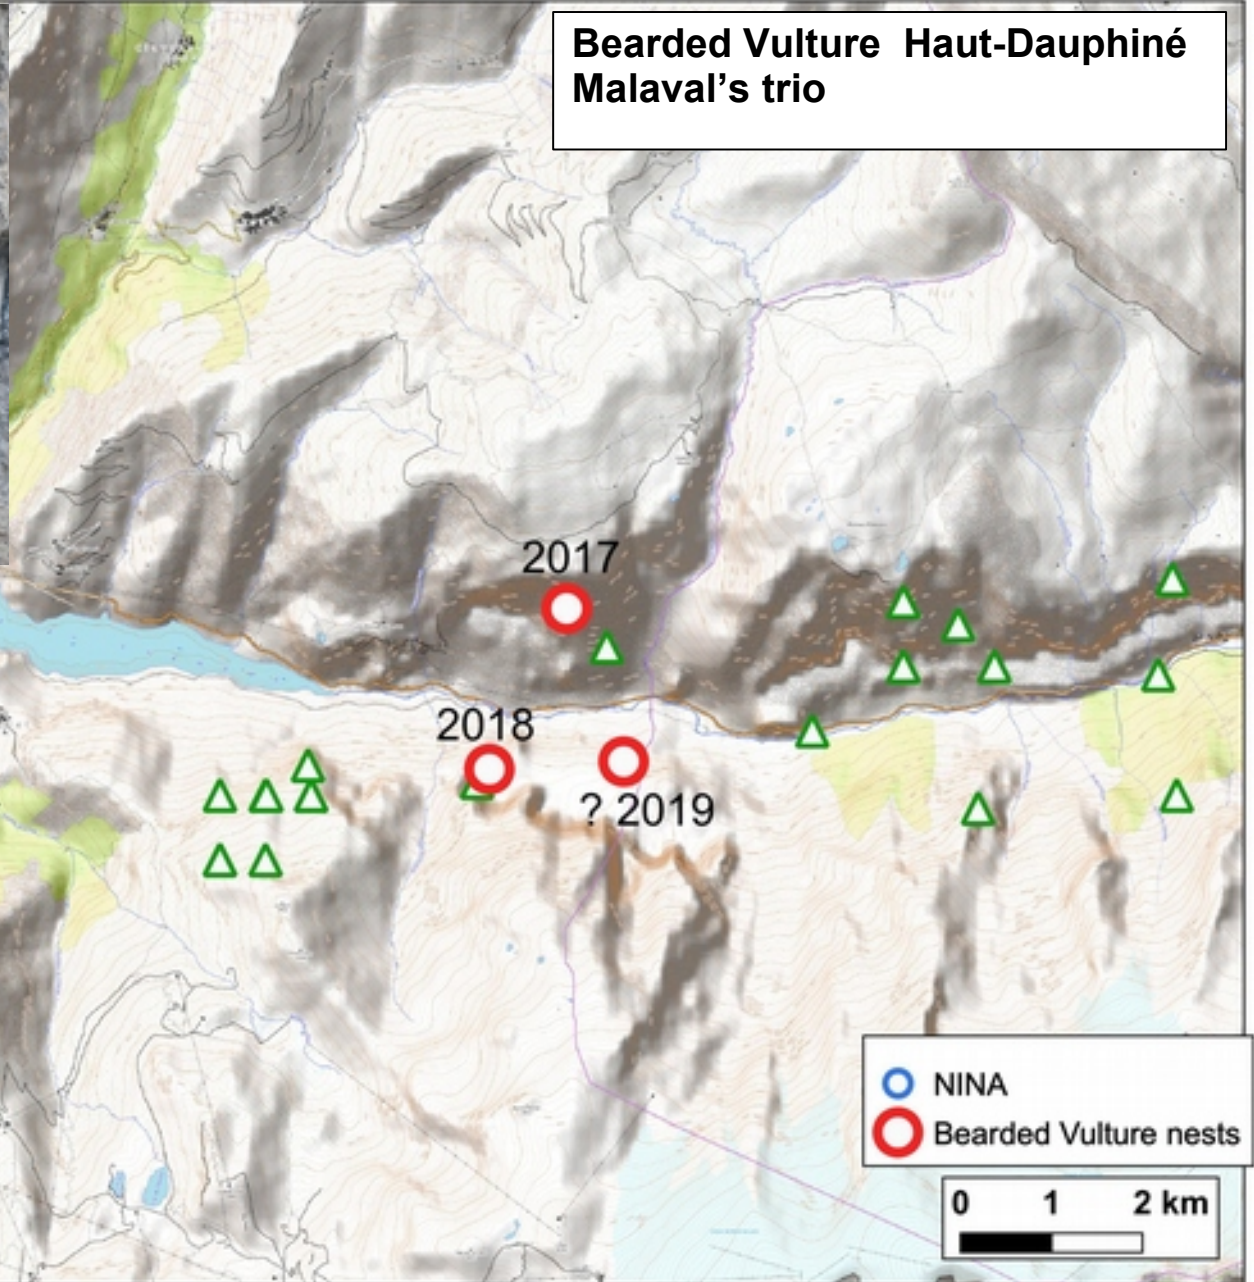

But...

... 24 years later

... 2017, Malaval's trio took place in our Golden Eagle country, exactly the same place where Nina was flying and was killed !!!

Envergures alpines 2019

After a first success in 2017-2018, the trio breed again in 2018-2019

A new nest was built last autumn on the other side of the valley

Breeding 2018-2019

- Clutch occur on January 6th, one month earlier than last year
- The parents took care of their baby all over the winter
- First flight on July 1st

October, building
a new nest.

Just a few days
to bring materials.

In these pictures,
we can see the work of the birds.

Good job !
